AI Sees Patterns We Miss

AI shifts us from reaction to prediction—and prevention.

A man's face is visible through a grid of green panels. The panels are arranged in a 3x3 grid, with the man's face appearing in the top-middle panel. The background is a dark green color with a subtle texture.
